

VIRGINIA LEAGUE LOSES ONE PLAYER

Tolson, Roanoke, Only One
Drafted Out of Total of 108.

JUNIOR LEAGUE GETS MOST

American Lands 67, While National Is Awarded Only 41.
Washington Loses.

Cincinnati, Ohio, September 15.—One hundred and eight minor league players were elevated to the major leagues via the draft route here today, when the American League obtained sixty-seven players by draft, while the National League annexed forty-one minors at the drawing made before the National Baseball Commission. The St. Louis American League club was by far the luckiest in the draw, obtaining thirty players, more than one-fourth of the total number obtained by all major league teams; Cincinnati was second with eleven; Chicago Americans next with ten; Detroit with nine; the Philadelphia Americans and the Boston Nationals had eight each; Brooklyn obtained seven; Boston Americans, five; New York Nationals, four; Chicago White Sox, four; Philadelphia Nationals, three; Cleveland and Pittsburgh and New York Americans got two each, while Washington and the St. Louis Nationals obtained one each.

Owing to new National Commission rule stipulating that the major club drawing for players from a minor league club, must be selected by lot before the player is named, the names of the players to be obtained by the major league from the class A and AA will not be officially announced until tomorrow.

Little business other than that of the drafting was taken up by the National Commission during the day, but a resolution by President Ebbetts, of the Brooklyn Club of the National League, was submitted. It aims to revise the drafting rules so as to give these teams which are lowest in the league the chance to obtain first call on the players that are drafted.

Players awarded to National League clubs from leagues below the class A and class A-1 are:

To Cincinnati—Adams, of Atlanta; Barham, of Victoria, Brown, of Seattle; Douglas, of Spokane; East, of Home, Ga.

To New York—Duchetti, of Pittsburgh; To Brooklyn—Keating, of Columbus, Ga.

To Philadelphia—Ireland, of New London; Murphy, of Thomasville, Ga. In the American League these were awarded:

Philadelphia—Gelbel, of Savannah; Pfeiffer, of Wilkes-Barre; Rhoades, of Houston; Thompson, of Durham; Wiley, of Beaumont, formerly with St. Louis Cardinals; Baker, of Albany; Caruthers, of Raleigh, N. C.; Boardman, of Waterbury.

Boston—Johnson, of Syracuse; Tolson, of Roanoke; Wilson, of Lynn; Zelzel, of Lowell; Combs, of Utica, St. Louis—Herdon, of Albany; Shaw, of York, Pa.; Stinson, of Lansing; Stuts, of Allentown; Cadore, of Wilkes-Barre; Clarke, of Trenton; Clarke, of York, Pa.; Coles, of Elmira.

Chicago—Ashley, of Ludington, Mich.; Graham, of Appleton; Holstein, of Lowell; Magee, of Lowell; Pepe, of New Haven; Reibersburg, of Ogden; Shortten, of Worcester.

New York—Fitzsimons, of Spokane; Cleveland—Hartford, of Bloomington, Ill.

Detroit—Kavanaugh, of York, Pa.

Blues play first game Saturday.

Billy Stittinger, coach of the Blues, is driving the team hard these days. The first game will be played Saturday against Hampden-Sydney, and the ex-Georgetown star is anxious that the team make a good showing. He is having something of a job filling the place made vacant by Billy Word, who is at the University of Virginia, but believes that before the season is over he will have one of the best teams in the State.

Lexington, Ky., September 15.—The fourth day of the Kentucky Association fall meeting was again graced by a splendid attendance. A vastly improved track was a contributing factor toward good sport, although the card on the whole was only a fair one. A handicap at five and one-half furlongs for two-year-olds, in which some fair juveniles engaged, was the feature. This was won by Edith W., which was in a commanding position throughout. Stokely was second and Anytime third.

BALTIMORE GETS MOST OF PLUMS

South Atlantic Branch of A. A. U.
Elects Officers—Washington Badly Slighted.

Washington, D. C., September 15.—As usual, Washington athletes received a beautiful free-riding-out at the annual election of officers of the South Atlantic branch of the A. A. U., held last night at Carroll Institute.

Washington scored twice, while Baltimore, as usual, counted ten times. The vice-president fell to Washington, as did one member of the registration committee. The entire six delegates to the national convention at New York next month are Baltimore men. Washington, Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina not having a man to represent them at the big meeting. The local athletes have only one kick. Washington clubs desired to have one man delegated to attend the meeting in New York, so that the feelings of the Washington athletes could be aired in regard to the formation of a separate organization in the District. This was denied them.

Following are the officers elected: president, Latrobe Cogswell, Baltimore, A. C.; vice-president, C. J. Dean, Carroll Institute; secretary-treasurer, J. J. Leimkuhler, Baltimore. The registration board follows: Dr. William Burdick, Baltimore, chairman; Reginald Rutherford, Washington, and J. J. Rettallala, Baltimore.

The delegates to the national convention are as follows: G. J. Turner, Dr. Burdick, Colonel Bowie, L. Cogswell, Dr. Hopkinson and J. J. Rettallala. All of these men are from Baltimore.

One Richmond organization had a delegate on hand and two local clubs were represented. Thirteen men voted, and Washington and Richmond did not have any more show to get a resolution passed than the St. Louis Browns have of winning the American League pennant this season.

Amateur athletes in Washington will be the same until this time next year. The only change Washington has of gaining a little representation and of having a delegate named to go to New York to ask the national body to allow the Washington clubs to organize a branch for themselves is for the local runners to organize more clubs than are at present in Baltimore.

John T. Meany and John Stowell resigned their positions. Meany was a member of the registration committee and Stowell was vice-president. Henry Ebbetts asked to be allowed to change his registration from the Baltimore Cross-Country Club to a new club in Baltimore, but this was refused him.

Philadelphians—Gelbel, of Savannah; Pfeiffer, of Wilkes-Barre; Rhoades, of Houston; Thompson, of Durham; Wiley, of Beaumont, formerly with St. Louis Cardinals; Baker, of Albany; Caruthers, of Raleigh, N. C.; Boardman, of Waterbury.

ALL NOW READY FOR GOLF TOURNEY

169 Players Will Compete for Honors—Evans Withdraws
His Entry.

Brookline, Mass., September 15.—After being the scene of two weeks of practice, culminating in almost continuous play to-day, the picturesque golf course of the Country Club was swept and dusted preparatory to the twenty-fourth open golf championship of the United States, which starts tomorrow.

The entire list of 169 players is the largest in the history of this event. Among them are players from England, France, Mexico and Canada, as well as home and foreign bred players from this country. John J. McDermott, of Atlantic City, an Irishman by birth, and a product of the American caddy school of golf, will defend his title, won for the second time at Buffalo last year.

There is scarcely a professional golfer of any prominence in this country not included in this list, while the amateur ranks will be represented by an unusually strong array, topped by the champion, Jerome D. Travers.

The interest in tomorrow's play, which is the first of two preliminary rounds of thirty-six holes each, will center in the work of Harry Vardon, of England, and Louis Todler, of France.

There was considerable regret in the afternoon when it was learned that Charles Evans, Jr., of Chicago, the gold medalist in the amateur championship two weeks ago, had scratched his entry for the open.

Bankers lose to all-star team.

Meet Defeat in Practice Game
for Series With Champion Grays.

Washington, D. C., September 15.—The Bankers, amateur champions of the District, met defeat in the first of the series with the All-Star club. The Stars handed the Bankers a 4 to 2 beating, hitting Frank Hoffacker for ten bingles. Chief Greene and Buck Barton did the hurting for the Stars.

Andrew Greene was touched for eight hits, he showed great form, and displayed a fast-breaking curve ball which fooled the bank clerks time and again.

Barton only worked one inning, and fanned two men in this session. Jimmy Greene pulled a circus stunt in left field, while a fast double play, Davis to Shalin to McCarthy, furnished another feature.

The same club will meet again Wednesday and Thursday to keep the Bankers in condition for the games Saturday in Richmond with the Richmond Grays.

Old Times to Play.

SPIDERS' SQUAD STARTING EARLY

Dobson Gives First Lesson to Pigskin Chasers of Richmond College.

Headed by Captain George, fifteen aspirants for football honors at Richmond College this season reported to Coach Frank Dobson yesterday afternoon. The work done was of the most elementary character, for the reason that Broad Street Park, where the men were assembled, was occupied by the Medical College of Virginia's squad.

However, Dobson managed to show his charges that he has something new in the way of football to teach.

The new coach will have to contend with a very light team. To offset this lack of weight, he will attempt to provide such plays as will put a premium on speed rather than brawn. Dobson, during his days at Clemson College, S. C., began perfecting a series of line shifts. He didn't have a chance to put them into action, but he will use all of these plays during this season.

To-morrow afternoon will see the real work start. Richmond College will be sole possessor of the field, and Dobson, who takes part in every scrimmage, will begin teaching the football ideas how to shoot. Those who have known Dobson only as a baseball player will be surprised at his resourcefulness as a football expert. He knows the game knows the rules, and he knows how to handle youngsters. He is really the inventor of certain shifts calculated to fool the defensive team, and he will improve other plays of a similar nature just as soon as he gets his men in shape to stand the strain.

HERE'S A NEW ONE FROM THE COMMISSION

Cincinnati, September 15.—The National Baseball Commission announced to-night that the protested game between New York and Philadelphia, which was first forfeited to New York, was now being played at Philadelphia, and later awarded to Philadelphia by President Lynch, of the National League, must be played over in part.

The decision of the national commission states that the game must be continued from the point at which it was forfeited. One man was out, the same batter must be up and the same men must be in the field. The interrupted game will be resumed at Philadelphia on October 2.

Democrats stand by caucus acts.

Under his amendment, the Federal reserve bank could have been allowed to begin business as soon as the full $5,000,000 capital had been subscribed without waiting for full payment.

Amendments Voted Down.
The amendment, after a vigorous discussion, was voted down, 78 to 29. Several minor amendments were defeated. An attempt was made to amend the bill to provide for the appointment of directors or directors in national banks from holding similar places in other national banks or in any other financial institutions. The Democrats stood by the caucus, and the amendment was rejected 71 to 44.

Another flood of amendments, designed to curtail the power of the Federal reserve agent named by the bill as the chairman of the board of directors, and the representative of the Federal reserve board in each Federal reserve bank, also was defeated.

A few changes in phraseology, according to Charles F. Smith, were the only amendments adopted.

VIRGINIA STARTS REAL FOOTBALL

Sixty-Five Candidates Keep
Coaches Busy—Billy Word
Shows Up Well.

Charlottesville, Va., September 15.—With sixty men on the field and five squads going up and down the gridiron, the Virginia coaches and Trainer Lannigan had their hands full to-day.

Dr. Charlie Crawford, the first of the alumni coaches to report, had charge of the drop kickers and punters. Addison, of the Episcopal High School, proved the most consistent punter.

"Buck" Mayer, "Billy" Word and Hall, of Woodberry, also showed up well in this department of the game. Toms and Word gave a clever exhibition of catching punts. Both are promising candidates for the backfield.

The various squads, under Head Coach Warren and Varner, alternated in signal practice and going down the field under punts.

Mayer received quite a welcome from his older team-mates, and worked out with the first squad, which is coming around rapidly. Others who reported to-day for the first time were the giant Farrow and Ray, of last year's squad. Among the recruits is Mellin, a 260-pounder from Shenandoah High School.

Levy, the prep school star from California, wired to-day that he would leave San Diego to-morrow for Charlottesville.

Among the spectators at to-day's practice was Coach Poague, of the Virginia Military Institute. He said that "Red" Moore, the star fullback of this section last year, would join him in Lexington next week, and assist in coaching the cadet team.

Los Angeles, Cal., September 15.—Francis J. Heney, the famous graft prosecutor, of San Francisco, to-day announced himself a candidate for United States Senator, to succeed George C. Perkins, of Oakland, whose term of office expires March 4, 1915.

Pretty Little Play Repeats.

Before two small audiences yesterday, Margaret Mayo's beautiful little play, "Polly of the Circus," made its annual appearance at the Academy of Music. And the expression "annual appearance" is not used in a slurring sense, for there is every reason why this exquisite comedy-drama should appear year after year. It is clean, wholesome, entertaining, and full of genuine sentiment, as distinguished from sentimentalism, aside from its technical merits, which are many.

Elsie St. Leon, who succeeded her sister, Ida, in the play last season, was again the Polly of the cast, and gave a pleasing performance, while George F. Harris was satisfactory in the part opposite her, that of the Reverend John Douglass. Mart E. Helsey, who Take Your Choice at the Lyric.

Silence, skill and strength are tied for first honors at the Lyric this week with noise, nonsense and nuttiness. "The Four Regals" represent the former and a raving maniac called Harry Breen stands for all the rest.

Because that is not strictly accurate, because there is nothing new for anything—he is the only human exponent of perpetual motion. From the moment he enters, up to the final instant when he waves to the leader of the orchestra to cut the music and let him rest, he is twisting, dancing, waving, wriggling, turning, wiggling and always, always, making a noise. Sometimes he is singing, generally he is talking, and occasionally he is giving what he calls an imitation. His mimicry of a mother whale calling to her baby is doubtless the most perfect simulation of that pathetic cry that has never been heard in any theatre. He says that there is nothing new in the matter with him really, that his only trouble is that somebody has been giving him meat! But that in itself would not explain why the aquirells follow him. He was on the stage probably twenty minutes, and during that time I didn't see him breathe a single time, and this is why he gets the money—I couldn't hear more than half today for the first time were the giant Farrow and Ray, of last year's squad. Among the recruits is Mellin, a 260-pounder from Shenandoah High School.

"The Deep Purple" Well Played.

If you have never seen that immensely successful play at the Lyric, "The Deep Purple" go to the Lyric this week; you will witness a thrilling melodrama well played.

Paul Armstrong is easily one of the foremost builders of the melodrama in this country. Wilson Mizner is said to have a nodding acquaintance with more crooks than any man in New York, and when the two put their heads together they produced a play so strong, so "wise" in its thieves' lingo, and so abounding in tense situations as to be well-nigh "actor-proof."

But, the content with an exceptionally good play, A. N. McDonald has engaged a capable company for his production of it, so that the combination of play and company presents an attraction that the Bijou will hardly surpass during its season.

So plausibly and cleverly are the plottings of a band of New York black-mailed crooks and gamblers in working out their ingenious badger game, unfolded and at last defeated that no one with any capacity for being thrilled within him could remain calm and unmoved.

With few exceptions
